The Left Libertarian

Hey, help us out
when a category 5
put the Impala

on the rooftop!
And with Grandma
shitting her pants

and thinking the mailman is Jesus. Plus

Dad’s bills after enough cancer to rot The Titantic.

Tuition breaks
the rich don’t need,

nor their infinite
other thieveries

aided by boughten
officials. Keep out of wars and bedrooms.

Come off in your own space!

Let’s take it back from the smug ones

who plunder the nation
and steal elections
in our name.

Home of the brave
just words
if we watch piracy.
